

Scenarios

Scenario 1: Safety laws

Maya enjoys riding her bike near her house. There are also people driving cars and people walking in the area she rides.

- What sorts of laws might Maya need to follow?
 - What sorts of laws might the other people there need to follow?
 - Why do they all need to follow these laws?
 - What could happen if they don't?
 - Who else needs to follow laws like these?
-

Scenario 2: Damage to public property laws

A group of teenagers is meeting at the local playground. They are being rough and the slides and swings might break.

- What sorts of laws might the teenagers need to follow?
 - Why do they need to follow these laws?
 - What could happen if they don't?
 - Who else needs to follow laws like these?
-

Scenario 3: Equality laws

Bo is in a wheelchair but his school does not have ramps, so he can't get around.

- What sorts of laws might the school need to follow?
 - Why do they need to follow these laws?
 - What could happen if they don't?
 - What other places need to follow laws like these?
-

Scenario 4: Theft laws

Bella is in a lolly shop but has no money. She wants to take some lollies anyway.

- What sorts of laws might Bella need to follow?
 - What sorts of laws might the shop need to follow?
 - Why do they all need to follow these laws?
 - What could happen if they don't?
 - Who else needs to follow laws like these?
-

Scenario 5: Health laws

A man is smoking inside the shopping centre.

- What sorts of laws might he need to follow?
 - What sorts of laws might the other people there need to follow?
 - Why do they all need to follow these laws?
 - What could happen if they don't?
 - Who else needs to follow laws like these?
-

Scenario 6: Environment laws

Paul has lots of rubbish and thinks he could just dump it in the local river.

- What sorts of laws might Paul need to follow?
 - What sorts of laws might the people who look after the river need to follow?
 - Why do they all need to follow these laws?
 - What could happen if they don't?
 - Who else needs to follow laws like these?
-